5th Annual Senior Picnic Returns June 12

By RICHARD BYRD
Managing Editor

MOSES LAKE - The Senior Picnic will be returning June 12 to provide fun and entertainment for local seniors.

The picnic, which has a Mardi Gras theme, will be held June 12 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at the Grant County Fairgrounds and is free for the public to attend, but organizers recommend a $5 donation for caregivers.

Now in it's fifth year since the Columbia Basin Senior Networking Forum, in conjunction with the Moses Lake Chamber of Commerce, took over the event from the Moses Lake Senior Center, the picnic serves as an opportunity for seniors to have a little bit of fun and learn about area services at the same time.

From live entertainment by the Seattle-based band Funaddicts, to over 30 vendors with booths, a hot meal, door prizes and more, organizers are hoping the full slate of activities will equate to over 600 meals served up on June 12.

"We again have over 30 vendors to provide a one-stop-shop for seniors to get information on anything and everything related to seniors. Whether it's housing, healthcare, caregiving, insurance and much more," said Senior Networking Forum representative Terri Riley-Brown.

Nearly 60 students from the Columbia Basin Job Corps will be in attendance as well to help prepare and serve food, set up and tear down the event space and help the seniors by valet parking walkers and providing general assistance.

"Honestly, without the help of the Job Corps kids we could not get the food out in time," Riley-Brown remarked.

In addition, Pack's Taxi & Delivery has pledged to transport seniors to and from the fairgrounds free of charge. All a senior has to do is contact Pack's at 509-762-1234 and mention the picnic. Mountainview Polaris will also be on-hand to transport seniors from the fairgrounds parking lot to the commercial building.

"I really feel that it is important that we give back to our community and especially that we give back to our seniors. And this is one way that we can do it by providing a hot meal, fun entertainment and an opportunity to win fun prizes," said Riley-Brown.

Riley-Brown said the event could not have been possible without the following sponsors: KDRM & KBSN, Confluence Health and the Columbia Basin Herald. She encouraged people to register for the picnic ahead of time so organizers know how much food is needed. To register contact the Moses Lake Chamber of Commerce at 509-765-7888 ext. 103 or Terri Riley-Brown at 509-855-2270.
