BRIEFLY

Theatre volunteer training set for Nov. 23

PROSSER – If watching free, live small town theatre productions sounds good to you and your pocketbook, come join the Prosser Princess Theatre volunteer cadre for a one-hour training on Saturday, Nov. 23.

The 9 to 10 a.m. training will provide volunteer basic information and opportunities. The Princess Theatre is expanding its programming and operations and volunteers are the key to the continuing success of the community theatre.

Call 509-786-2180 for more information.

'The Rocky Horror Show' staged in Yakima

YAKIMA – There is time to see the Yakima Valley College Playmasters production of "The Rocky Horror Show" at the Kendall Hall, building 12 on the Yakima campus, at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 21-23.

General admission tickets can be purchased in advance online at the price of $15.00 general admission and $10.00 students/seniors at: www.brownpapertickets.com/event/4423400.

YVC's production encourages audience costumes and interaction. Prop bags will be available for $5.

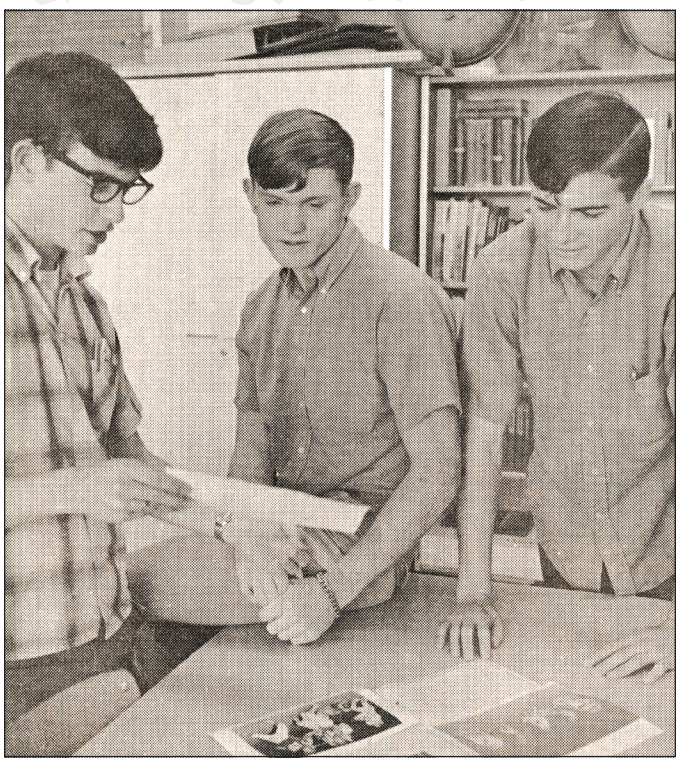
Senior Thanksgiving dinner served up Nov. 26

GRANDVIEW — The Grandview Senior Citizen's Annual Thanksgiving Party will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 26 at 10:30 a.m., at the Grandview Community Center located at 812 Wallace Way.

All area senior citizens are welcome to attend. Bingo, door prizes, and fun are all part of the activity menu.

Call 509-882-9230 24 hours in advance to make reservations for the People for People lunch meal.

Sun Reflections



Sunnyside Sun file photo

STUDENT VOICE — Sunnyside High School student annual staff, from left, editor Jim Robinson, and photographer Dick Paulson and sports editor Rick Orth discussed how photos were chosen for the school yearbook.

EDITOR'S NOTE — Glancing back through the Sunnyside Sun pages, here is sampling of the stories published in 1969 reflecting everything that made the Sun the original voice of the community.

This week in 1969

Jerry Taylor named Mayor

The oath of office was administered to four newly elected Sunnyside City Council members Nov. 18 at city hall. Seated were incumbents Don Hughes, Edgar Bessey and new city representatives Noble Funk and Irene Berk.

The council reorganized itself reelecting Jerry Taylor as mayor and Ray Gardner as mayor pro tem.

Sen. "Scoop" Jackson talks war in Sunnyside

"Our decision in Vietnam must not be so hasty and ill-advised that it will result in a larger war later," Sen. Henry "Scoop" Jackson, D-Wash., told a Sunnyside gathering in a front-page Sunnyside Sun article.

Saying everyone in the country wants peace, Jackson told his crowd. "However, our withdrawal should not come about until the Vietnamese have a government of their own choice selected under some sort of international plebiscite where we can be sure that there will be a fair and open election."

J&D Super Duper Food Market planned expansion

Joel Chambers, owner of the J&D Super Duper Food Market, announced his plans to add a home and garden center as part of his sixth major expansion in the Eastway Shopping Center on East Edison Avenue. His latest expansion was formerly owned by Bruce's Furniture.

He said the new store will handle a complete line of General Electric appliances, television, radios and small appliances.

UGN drive within $2,500 of target

The Sunnyside United Good Neighbors drive was slowly creeping toward its 1969 goal, Tom Amburn, program chairman announced.

The Gifts Committee, headed by UGN volunteer Marlin Dayton, reached 101 percent and the medical division, headed by Russell Arbuckle, topped out at 102 percent, bringing the total to within $2,500 of its $18,500 goal, Amburn told the Sun.

New physician moves to Sunnyside

Dr. Paul Hutson, an osteopathic physician and surgeon of Des Moines, Iowa, announced plans to move to Sunnyside and join Dr. A. E. Borchardt's Professional Clinic group with medical privileges at Sunnyside General Hospital.

Bonnie Dunbar leads Angel Flight at UW

Bonnie Dunbar was elected commander of the Angel Flight program at the University of Washington. At the time of her election, she was the chairman of the National Angel Flight Concave to be held in Anaheim, Calif.

The 1967 Sunnyside High School graduate was a junior at UW, majoring in ceramic engineering. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunbar of Outlook.

Gingerbread Build-Off planned Nov. 30

PROSSER — The 2nd Annual Gingerbread Build-Off will be held on Saturday, Nov. 30 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Desert Wind Winery, 2258 Wine Country Road.

Teams of local bakers are still being accepted, please contact the Foundation if you are interested. There is no cost require to attend the Gingerbread Build-Off.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the Prosser Memorial Health Foundation.

Attendees can vote for their favorite and help crown the 2019 winner.

To register for the Build-Off contact Memorial Health Foundation at 509-786-6601 or visit prosserhealth.foundation.