

Sumas celebrates Community Days

After taking a year off due to the pandemic, Community Days enlivened Sumas on June 18-19. Above: World War II veteran Lorren Coleman rides in the American Legion parade entry. Left: A car show is an opportunity for friends to chat. Kids show off their booty of candy thrown in the parade. Zigzag and Ragz makes kids' balloon hats. And an outfield hit is recorded in the softball tournament. (Calvin Bratt/Lynden Tribune)

Please join us
Saturday, June 26th
 as we celebrate Jan Simpson (Seutz)
 as she graciously turns 80.

She has been a great inspiration to all of her sons and many others who have had the privilege of knowing her throughout the years.

Come by anytime between 12-5 and say hello. The address is 233 Bay Lyn Drive. Food and refreshments will be provided.

The Lynden Pioneer Museum is celebrating the most important day in U.S. history...
