

Scenes from Springdale parade and Showcase in the Park

Photos by K.S. Brooks

Children's Arts Festival in Chewelah Park big hit with kids

Dozens of children enjoyed the session of music and motion with Gina Greenwood and Mo Oliver on Sunday afternoon. K.S. Brooks photo

The easel painting station was full of activity throughout the weekend. K.S. Brooks photo

We all make us all strong.

Our values and traditions
help make us who we are.
Our Connection — that's what makes us strong.

Call the Suicide Prevention Lifeline at (800) 273-8255.
NativeAndStrong.org

The StageTime kids prepared all week for their two shows on Saturday. K.S. Brooks photo

Eric Stevens performed magic for a packed house of amazed kids. K.S. Brooks photo

VOLUNTEER

Continued from Page 2

reviewing grant applications and providing suggestions to applicants to help them improve their proposals.

Participation on the committee takes place online and stipends may be provided to eligible members. Visit the Recreation and Conservation Office's web site rco.wa.gov/get-involved/volunteer-advisory-committee/ to learn more about the various advisory committees. Applications are due Aug. 6.